Norwegian Journal of Geology

Norsk Geologisk Tidsskrift

The main journal for Norwegian geological research, distributed to all members of the Norwegian Geological Society. First published in 1905, this geological journal is issued quarterly by the Norwegian Geological Society (Norsk Geologisk Forening). The journal publishes research articles, review articles, papers, notes and discussions relevant to the varied and complex geology of Norway, the Arctic regions, and adjacent offshore areas. Scientific papers from all geological, geophysical and geochemical disciplines are considered for publication. The contributors, referees and readership are widely international.

The front page shows a small part of a new geological map of the Fennoscandian Shield (scale 1:2 million). The map has been compiled by the Geological Surveys of Norway, Sweden and Finland, and the North-West Department of Natural Resources, Russia. Paper copies and digital data sets are available from each of the participating institutions.
