

Dear fellow PhD candidates and PostDocs,

we have been quiet for quite some while regarding our newsletter and updates on activities. But this does not mean that UiODoc was not working hard towards our common goal:

“Make life better and easier for temporary employees at UiO.”

To do so we need to reach-out to all of you.

You can help us by spreading the word!

PhD and PostDoc breakfast club (PBC)

In cooperation with UiO library, we have successfully resumed the popular PhD Breakfast Club in January with the hot topic “Brace yourself - you’re applying for a grant.”

This series of talks will continue on February 28th (08.30 h at HumSam biblioteket) with “How to write a grant proposal”.

Our speaker Erlendur Helgason (PhD Microbiology) is a senior advisor at the External Funding Unit at the Faculty of Medicine. He supports scientists at the faculty in writing better grant proposals. He is a course leader in several courses held at the faculty on funding opportunities and grant writing.

Free breakfast upon registration.
